

The Isle of Man Times and General Advertiser

8th December 1888

Probate Division

The petition of Patrick Radcliffe was heard for administration of the estate of Margaret Cowell who died in Albany, pending the production of a will said to be in existence in Canada. The petitioner was the brother in law of the deceased, who had children in America. Mr Nelson stated that he had authority from one of the children, Thomas Jno. Cowell and was permitted to add his name to the petition which was granted.